Ridge Vineyards

The excellent reputation of Ridge was established by the Monte Bello's unprecedented success in the 1976 Judgement of Paris tasting. Since then, head winemaker Paul Draper has built on this reputation with the development of Geyserville and Lytton Springs. Both are among the very finest wines made from Zinfandel. The estate also produces excellent white wines from Chardonnay that are unashamedly American in style.

Sesti, Castello di Argiano

Since planting their own vines in 1991 at the 13th century Castello di Argiano on the Southern slopes of Montalcino and in a short period of time, the Sesti family has been widely acknowledged as producing some of the finest wines of the Montalcino region. The Monteleccio is a shorter barrel aged Sangiovese, with sumptuous fresh fruit and a good introduction to the style of the estate's wines.

Palacios Family

The Palacios family is probably the most prolific wine-making dynasty in the whole of Spain. Here we stock wines from Alvaro Palacios's Bierzo & Priorat estates, his younger brother Rafael's Valdeorras estate and also the family winery Palacios Remondo, which is also now run by Alvaro. This selection of fantastic wines shows not only the diverse range of wines that modern Spain has to offer but also why Alvaro Palacios was named 'Decanter Man of the Year' for 2015.

Château Cos d'Estournel

Château Cos d'Estournel is one of only two Second Growths in Saint-Estèphe and we believe the finer of the two. The property lies adjacent to that of Château Lafite-Rothschild in the neighbouring Pauillac. This is reflected in the Château being considered a member of the 'Super Second' group of Bordeaux Châteaux that, while outside the top tier of classification, offer wines of a similar class and quality. Occasionally we come across a parcel of another vintage so please feel free to enquire.
